Description

Polished nickel and marble effect champagne urn on foot.
We adore this contemporary classic champagne bucket, especially the antique nickel finish - allowing your Cristal, Gosset or Taittinger bottles to be shown at their best.
And when not in use, it will look fabulous with some moth orchids to create an enchanting centrepiece.
Sculpted from strong stainless steel, this luxury serveware accessory is the perfect accent for stylish entertaining.
Oval shaped with a classic design, this antique-inspired champagne urn is then complete with a weighted footed base.
Bottle capacity - Can hold up to five bottles of champagne.
Please note: Handmade to order by skilled artisans, the antique effect exterior of this product is distinctively unique every time making this a bespoke addition to impress your discerning dinner guests in style.
