Description

Large shiny white designer floor lamp from Flos. Designed by Sebastian Wrong and winner of the red dot award in 2004, this funky floor lamp is a brilliant addition to any living or dining space and design classic of the future. Providing soft diffused lighting, the floor lamp is made from a spun metal frame with diffuser. Use of one material for both the base and diffuser creates an unusual piece which combined with the clean lines of the form makes a really bold statement. Switching: On the cable there is the electronic dimmer which allows the regulation of light brightness.
