Description

A frame contemporary desk with glass table top. Channel luxury contemporary style into your interior with the Andrew Martin A Frame Desk. Working from home is a chore we all dread, but with the help of designer homeware brand Andrew Martin, this beautiful desk is sure to reinvigorate your office space with its robust practicality and undeniably good looks. The sleek clean lines of the large rectangular table top give an ample workspace to keep you productive in style. Providing a refreshing alternative to the more conventional work desk, the base is characterised by two A-shaped chrome frames. The frame contrasts with the transparent glass in perfect harmony for a perfect combination of classic and contemporary design. Sitting at this stunning desk will make working from home so enjoyable, you'll find it hard to return to the office!
