Description

Contemporary outdoor java weave right arm chaise longue from Skyline. - Make the best of your outdoor living space with the Skyline Pacific Chaise Longue Right.

Developed for the ultimate summer of style, this modular right arm chaise longue forms part of Skyline's iconic Pacific modular furniture collection. Perfect for poolside relaxation and Pimm's with family and friends, Pacific features a clean line minimalist aesthetic, woven with an outdoor java weave exterior, available in a choice of colourways.

Comfortable outdoor back pads and plump cushion upholstery - available in a selection of uplifting colourways - completes this bespoke furniture piece in style.

Create your own unique furniture arrangement by combining with a right hand, curved or central section to mix and match as required.

Please note: Although developed for outdoor use, we advise keeping upholstery indoors when not in use and keeping your furniture sheltered during adverse weather conditions to uphold its chic aesthetic for many summertimes to come.
