Description

Classic Deknudt mirror with ornate detailed frame. Designed by Ann Grymonpon, this rich textured mirror embodies captivating character and enchantingly chic glamour. This distinctive designer mirror will make a gorgeous focal point in the lounge or entrance hallway of your interior. Deknudt combines expert craftsmanship with innovation to create mirrors with the highest quality design, reflection and style. Presented in an exquisite silver leaf finish, the mirror is textured, like it's namesake, in an unusual dragon-skin design. Rectangular in shape, it is the perfect addition for both classic and contemporary schemes where it will elevate the mood of your room and reflect the beauty of your interior. Due to the artisan production of the mirror, slight variations in appearance are to be expected and celebrated as each mirror is unique with no two being exactly alike.
