Description

Small antique brass and ribbed cut glass Eichholtz hurricane candle holder.

Create an enchanting style statement with the Eichholtz Hurricane Harrington Small.

Sculpted by skilled glass artisans, this distinctive antique inspired candle holder features a lantern-like cylinder jar which shelters your flickering candlelight inside.

Made from ribbed cut glass with antique brass detailing, it will combine wonderfully with accenting Eichholtz candles and candleabras for a captivating illumination of designer style.

Please note due to the artisan production process and materials used, no two items are exactly alike, making this a unique addition for the heart of your interior space.
