Description

Large antique brass and ribbed cut glass Eichholtz hurricane candle holder.

Illuminate the beauty of your interior space with the Eichholtz Hurricane Harrington Large.

Sculpted by skilled glass artisans, this delightful antique inspired candle holder features a lantern-like cylindrical jar which shelters your flickering candlelight inside.

Made from ribbed cut glass with antique brass detailing, it will combine wonderfully with accenting Eichholtz candles and candleabras for a layered illumination of designer style.

Please note due to the artisan production process and materials used, no two items are exactly alike, making this a unique addition for the heart of your interior space.
