Description

Bring off the wall style indoors with a Flos KTribe Wall Light.

This lavish wall mounted lamp projects diffused lighting into the room. With a square base, sleek stem and curved diffuser with shade, the Flos KTribe Wall Light will make a stylish addition in the home.

The piece also features a switch near the diffuser which offers a four-level light setting that is controlled through a remote dimmer.

Finished with a lavish aluminised silver shade offering a gleaming aura of luxury that will look stunning in your bedroom, hallway or living area.

The Flos KTribe Wall Light comes with one of five different shade finishes, meaning you can mix and match the lights throughout your home for a complete look to the lighting arrangement.

From Flos and designed by Philippe Starck, give this illustrious and modern lighting solution a space in your home interior.
