Description

The Mayor sofa was first designed in the 1940s by Arne Jacobsen and Flemming Lassen for the Søllerød city hall. Now more than 70 years on the Mayor has won best reissue in the prestigious Wallpaper awards. Mayor shows a moderation of modernism in its design with a frame made of solid oak, tight fixed upholstery with 3 loose seat cushions and 2 rows of elegant buttons which extend over the armrests and back giving the sofa a simple and stylish look. This fabulous sofa is available in a range of fabric choices please contact customer services for further information. Please note each sofa is made to order and upholstered in Kvadrat Divina MD 613.
