Description

Stay snuggled up with the Muuto Cosy in White Lamp.

The graceful lamp is made from mouth blown glass and comes with a textile power cord.

Designed by Harri Koskinen for Muuto, the lamp is the result of using a natural material for changing reflections and looks that fills the space and illuminates the room.

For maximum results the lamps are at their best in the evening where they create a calming and tranquil mood in the room that offers an inviting aura.

Place yours in the hallway, living area or bedroom for a cosy feel throughout the surroundings.

The Muuto Cosy in White Lamp comes in two different sizes.

Group one size for a consistent look or mix the sizes for a unique take to your designer lighting collection throughout the home.

Requires: 1 x E14 40W max – small / 1 x E27 60W max - large
