Description

Rectangular oak dining table from XVL.
Channel contemporary minimalist style with the XVL Home Collection Dito Dining table.

Rectangular in shape with a straight line design, it is a modern interpretation of the traditional dining table.

Inspired by the chic simplicity of Scandinavian design, it is made from naturally sourced oak in a choice of stained finishes.

In a choice of sizes to suit the large open plan dining spaces to compact interiors with a smaller footprint, Dito is the perfect addition for any interior space.

Complete the look with accenting dining chairs from the Houseology designer furniture collection for a timeless aesthetic of enduring contemporary style.

Please note: Pictured with the Oak Natural finish – other premium finishes are available at a price increase of 25% per item, please contact customer services for further details and pricing.

Artisan production: Due to the natural materials used, each table is distinctively unique and variations are to be joyfully celebrated as no two tables are exactly alike.
