Description

Add culture to the home with the XVL London Side Table. The piece features minimal detailing with the side table comprising a single entity shape made from oak veneer and in a dark stained finish. The table features raised edges with a smooth table top offering an inspirational resting place for a bedside table lamp or sofa end table lamp. Place yours in the living area or hallway for a unique addition of designer style. Alternatively, place it in the bedroom for an original take on a bedside table. Create a cosmopolitan theme in the home by teaming the XVL Home Collection London Side Table with other products from the range such as the Glasgow Side Table for a consistent look to your furniture arrangement. Other premium finishes are available at a price increase of 25% per item, please contact customer services for further details and pricing.
