Description

Illuminate the home with the Holt Nickel Chandelier.

From Heathfield & Co, the chandelier has a thin framed structure with a long stem extending from a rounded ceiling rose from which five arms protrude.

With simple design and minimal detailing, the ceiling light comes with a shiny nickel finish while the drop height of the light can be adjusted.

Each light comes with a 10-inch flat drum shade in a premium mocha silk finish with silver PVC lining.

This stunning piece will make a fine addition to the living area, hallway or dining room of your home.

Requires 5 x E27 halogen bulb or compact fluorescent (not included).
