Description

Plantation teak finished dining table from PR Home.
This table offers a classic take on the furniture piece for outdoor use. It features four solid legs support with a sturdy table top with minimal wood detail. Exuding a timeless aura, the table will make a wonderful addition to your patio or garden area. Catch up with friends, have the family around or simply share a meal with a loved one as the sun sets at the PR Home Antibes Table. Please Note: Requires simple assembly. Aesthetic Care: Developed for outdoor use, this table is treated against the elements, however during extreme adverse weather conditions - particularly during hard winters - we advise sheltering this product indoors.
