Description

Take a seat on the Antibes Outdoor Bench from PR Home. The bench is made from plantation teak and comes in a natural finish. It has four solid teak legs for support and a sturdy teak seating surface with minimal detail. The bench offers a timeless and classic look to the garden or patio area. Complement it with the Antibes Dining Table for a complete dining arrangement. The bench is available in two sizes. Group together for a unique seating plan.
Note: Some assembly required.
