Description

Ash wood upholstered drinks cabinet by Eichholtz.
Cause a shake and a stir at cocktail hour with the Eichholtz Martini Bianco Cabinet.
Inspired by antique campaign drinks cabinets, this smart check upholstery cocktail cabinet offers the ultimate in interior luxury.
A contemporary replica for your next stylish soiree, this design drinks cabinet features castor wheels for easy moving, polished brass clasp fasteners and corner protection.
Studded hardware with a rich natural painted Chinese ash wood finish provides a stylish backdrop for storing and preparing drinks at parties.
With internal hanging space for glasses, a wine bottle storage rack and selection of drawers and open shelving, this discerning design piece is the perfect accent for the host with the most.
The ideal accompaniment for classic and contemporary interiors, this drinks cabinet looks great both in the open or closed display position.
Please note: Due to the hand crated nature of this product and artisan production process used, each cabinet is unique every time with no two exactly alike.
