Description

Stylish outdoor dining table with round parasol holder, ideal for al fresco dining in the garden.
The table features simple style with four slender wooden legs supporting a large rectangular table top with subtle slatted pattern and a centre gap to hold a parasol in place.
Designed by Mogens Holmriis, the Drachmann Table comes in two variations of white sapele or teak and can sit up to eight people.
Group the table with dining chairs from the Skagerak collection for a complete look to your outdoor dining arrangement.
The Drachmann Table channels simple Danish style and offers versatility in that it can also be used indoors.
