Description

Stick to traditions by adding the Sahara Travel Desk from Eichholtz to the interior of your home. The desk is made from mahogany and channels traditional and timeless style into the room. It comprises a large desk top with straight line design and smooth surface, several storage compartments and four pull-out drawers, each with a rounded brass handle. This is supported by a cross legged frame that is joined from both ends by a gold central beam to add a subtle and stylish contrast. The Sahara Travel Desk brings classic designer style into your home and can be placed in the hallway, lounge or living area.
