Description

Lavish nickel hanging lantern from Eichholtz.

The Urn Lantern offers a unique take on contemporary lighting.

The lantern has a curved nickel structure with intricate detailing and a central stem that joins two large curved arms. The light source is encased by glass panels while there is also a hanging loop from which the lantern can be suspended.

The gorgeous Urn Lantern will add an elegant aura to the space and will make a fine addition to the dining room, lounge or hallway of your home.

The lantern is also available in a larger size and can be grouped for an original look to your home lighting arrangement.
