Description

Set of vintage and globally inspired prints from Eichholtz. The set includes six individual prints that when combined form the shape of the earth from two perspectives. Two of the prints also feature further detail with elegant script aspects. Each print in the stunning set comes with a black finished wooden frame and glass panel protection. Place your set in the drawing room, hallway or dining room of your home for a look that exudes sophisticated appeal combined with designer style. Note: Dimensions shown are per print
