Description

Bright lemon and grey squared cross-shaped contemporary rug. Add a splash of colour with the Gandia Blasco rug collection. Designed with love in Spain by product designer and architect, Patricia Urquilola for Gandia Blasco, this jumper-like rug is a gorgeous addition to warm up the heart of your design scheme. Luxuriously handcrafted by skilled textile artisans in India, the Plait Square Yellow Rug forms part of Gandia Blasco's iconic Mangas rug collection. Perfect for classic and contemporary interiors alike, the Mangas collection draws influence from nostalgic 1970s knitwear. A charming alternative to the conventional rectangle shaped rug, the rug features cut-outs at each corner to give it a squared cross-shaped aesthetic. The knitted wool is weaved in tones of zesty lemon yellow and cool grey which combine in harmony with a border of warm taupe. Place on wooden flooring in your Urban design scheme for a colourful hit of on-trend colour and complete the look in style.
