Description

Geometric wool rug collection in a choice of colours. Embrace bohemian style with the Plantation Rug Company Medina collection. Inspired by the traditional rugs of Medina - an ancient North African walled town - this lovely rug collection fuses contemporary style with aztec style. Created by luxury hand-woven rug artisans, this collection is made from 100% wool and features a geometric design in a choice of bold colours. With their vibrant tones and curious rug piles, Plantation offer you the unique opportunity to add a touch of culture and history to your interior scheme. Produced using the finest natural materials, it is created to withhold wear and tear and elevate your space in true designer style for decades to come.
