Description

Black satin pendant lamp with crystal droplets and prosecco inner.

Make a captivating focal point in the heart of your interior with the Roehampton Crystal Pendant.

Designed by Heathfield & Co, the ceiling light effortlessly combines a black satin shade with crystal elements to add an aura of elegance to your room.

Complete with a striking 24-inch drum shade in a crisp black finish, the look contrasts beautifully with Heathfield's Prosecco PVC lining and a fringing of glamorous crystal tear droplets in a perfectly formed circle.

The pendant is complete with a ceiling rose and suspension cable that allows you to adjust the drop to create the perfect illumination as an inner diffuser encourages a welcoming interior ambience.

A decadent delight, this timeless addition is an investment piece for both classic and contemporary interiors - sure to never go out of style.

Note: 3x E27 bulbs required (not included).
