Description

Glass decanter pendant light from Heathfield. Designed by luxury lighting specialists, Heathfield & Co, Zola embodies timeless elegance and stylish sophistication. Presented in a chic glass finish, it features a tapering glass shade from a wire suspension. Inspired by traditional crystal wine and port decanters, the shade is ribbed and rendered in a smoky finish with vintage appeal. Perfect hung low above your living room side table or as a convivial focal point above your dining table, this decadent delight is sure to inspire conversation and impress your guests at your next dinner party. To create fusion in your design scheme, accent with wall lighting or a statement floor lamp from the Houseology designer lighting collection. Requires: 1x E27 60W Max light bulb (not included)
Cable: 1m cable (Opal Jade pendant - silver cable) (Smoke pendant - chocolate cable).
