Description

Contemporary plastic shell armchair with oak legs. Embrace the soulful - Scandinavian charm of the Normann Copenhagen Form Armchair - Oak. Designed by Simon Legald, Form is intended as a rebirth of the traditional shell armchair, reinterpreted to achieve a more unified look. The moulded plastic seat and frame of oak join in harmony using a unique cup system. Industrial and natural elements meet elegantly, exuding the superior craftsmanship that Normann Copenhagen are renowned for. Ergonomically designed, it has a contoured shape to ensure a comfortable seating experience. The perfect balance of modern and minimalist style, Form will accent your interior space wonderfully with its soft and welcoming aesthetic that is guaranteed to never go out of style.
