Description

Art Deco style Cast Brass pillar wall sconce with Murano glass lamp shade.

Taking inspiration from the Art Deco era, this iconic designer wall light pays homage to the joy of traditional craftsmanship and the radiance of modernist, geometrical design.

Available in a choice of exquisite colourways, the Bronx wall sconce features a commanding Cast Brass column which elevates a frosted Murano glass pillar shade.

Pieter Adams' signature interconnecting circular discs add a geometric decoration, further accented by a circular wall plate, completing the look in style.

Bronx is a timeless showpiece for the heart of your home and will look perfectly placed in your hall way interior space to create a welcoming aura of enduring style.

Please note: Requires 1x E27 60W Max light bulb (not included)
