Description

White oiled oak and formpressed veneer armchair and white upholstered seat.

Designed to explore the correlation between positive and negative space, the & Tradition In Between Chair is an iconic addition for your chosen interior space.

The perfect dining chair or stylish occasional chair for your bedroom or hallway, each chair is designed by Samio Kallio using two techniques... Compression veneer moulding create strong, yet minimalist aesthetic as white oiled oak woodturning achieves a distinctive aesthetic with a unique personality every time.

Lovely for classic and contemporary interior schemes, the Mid Century Modern legs and elegant armrests are wonderfully complemented by formpressed oak veneer side panels as white fabric upholstery completes the aesthetic in style

Combine with accenting designer furniture and lighting from the Houseology designer homeware collection for a layered fusion of designer style.
